A top-down photograph of a meal. In the foreground, a white bowl with a blue and gold rim contains a yellow lentil soup. The soup is garnished with sliced green tomatoes, brown lentils, a bay leaf, a slice of red onion, a small white garnish, and a red chili pepper. In the background, a white plate with a gold rim holds two sausages, one sliced and one whole. A wooden-handled fork rests on the plate. A glass of water and a butter knife are also visible on the light blue tablecloth.
